The policy also addresses timing restrictions, with most airlines requiring name corrections to be completed at least twenty-four to seventy-two hours before departure. Understanding these rules before booking helps you make informed decisions about which fare class offers the flexibility you might need [USA] ♦ +1-855-636-1901 (US) or +1-866-270-0220 (US). For passengers who frequently travel or anticipate potential name-related issues, purchasing a more flexible ticket type provides insurance against costly change fees. In these situations, the airline typically corrects the error at no charge since the mistake was not the passenger's fault. Documentation requirements, processing timeframes, and fee waivers can all be discussed in detail when you contact the policy information line. [USA] ♦ +1-855-636-1901 (US) or +1-866-270-0220 (US)
